PRAYER FOR WORLD PEACE

Many have asked how should we pray?

In chaotic times like the present, the question arises more frequently. Here we refer you to the direct text of Astara’s Book of Life 1st Degree Lesson.

The wisdom of these words may help you in your prayers to feel the inner peace, a prerequisite for world peace.

“There is this great comfort: the force of love is much more powerful than the force of hate or fear. Were this not so, humanity would have destroyed itself long ago. The force of love causes the world to move and have its being. Love is life, love is God, or God is love. Say it however you will. And once God is realized within, the love which is born simultaneously prevents the individual from ever returning to as low a level of consciousness as previously. Only by experiencing it can one understand.”

From The First Degree Lesson
